

*You Are Invited to the National Indian Health Board's
40th Anniversary Celebration
Pow Wow and Cultural Dance Performance*

Denver Sheraton's Grand
Ballroom

Thursday, September 27, 2012 @
5:00 ~ 11:00 PM

Free Admission!

This Social Pow Wow and Cultural Dance Performance event is open to all American Indians and Alaska Natives. The evening activities will feature dance performances by Alaska Native and Navajo Dance Groups, in addition to others. All are welcome to bring regalia and share traditions as part of this celebration. Please join us for the social and traditional intertribal dancing and singing.

Pow Wow Head Staff

Gourd Dance	Water Bird Singers, Southern
Honor Guard and Grand Entry*
Honor Guard	American Indian Veterans of Colorado Color Guard
Master of Ceremonies	Thomas Wind, Creek
Arena Director	Bernard Cottonwood, Hunkpapa Dakota
Host Southern Drum	Water Bird Singers
Host Northern Drum	Plenty Wolf Singers
Head Man Dancer	Doug Good Feather, Hunkpapa Lakota, Veteran
Head Woman Dancer	Adrianna Rouillard, Oglala Lakota, Veteran
Head Boy Dancer	Matene Wanna-Jerome, Turtle Mountain Band of Chippewa
Head Girl Dancer	Shaylee Sherwood, Arikara- Hidatsa-Navajo- Assiniboine-Blackfeet, Cree

Food from Tocabe: An American Indian Eatery in Denver will be available for purchase.

Special Thanks to:

The Native American Rights Fund
for their partnership in planning this Pow Wow

Office of the President and Vice President, Navajo Nation

Register for the NIHB Annual
Consumer Conference at www.nihb.org