Interdependencies

Structure

- Establish Goals
- Define SMART Objectives to meet the goals
- Evaluate and identify tactics that meet the objectives
- Establish timelines and decision points
- Start with existing recovery plan elements found in Emergency Response and Recovery Plans
- Modify to meet the needs of current event
- Organize by Recovery Support Function or FEMA Lifelines

Leadership Engagement & Guidance

Program Subject Matter Experts

Facilitators

Planners

Data Driven

Reliable and credible data sources

Ground truth information provided by government, private sector, non-profit organizations and other partners as well as the community

Identify stressor(s) that are compounding the situation, in order to develop quality and sound solutions

Implement the Plan

- Once drafted and reviewed by all participants, the leadership group should collectively review and refine the plan.
- Decision points, both lateral and horizontal, should be established for each sector. Decision points determine when new actions are required.
- Timelines are important, but indicators will drive an action vs a date on the calendar.
- Reconvene the group to evaluate data and indicators.
- Develop courses of action that provide solution and select best option that ensures sustainability and resilience.

Sustainable & Resilient

Reflective

using past experience to inform future decisions

Resourceful

recognizing alternative ways to use resources

Inclusive

prioritize broad consultation to create a sense of shared ownership in decision making

Integrated

bring together a range of distinct systems and institutions

Robust

well-conceived, constructed, and managed systems

Redundant

spare capacity purposefully created to accommodate disruption

Flexible

willingness, ability to adopt alternative strategies in response to changing circumstances
