

Best Practices for Respectful Discussion

- Listen respectfully without interrupting
- Make sure to listen actively and with an ear to understand others' views.
- Take this opportunity to hear from youth and elders' views to learn about the different perspectives
- Allow everyone the chance to speak in your group.

Discussion Questions

1) How did the COVID-19 pandemic affect your personal and work life? What were your challenges and experiences? What do you expect the long-term changes will look like?

2) Based on your experience during the COVID-19 pandemic and vaccination administration, what did you learn were the best ways to encourage community members, youth, and elders to get vaccinated? What methods were less successful?

Discussion Questions

- 3) Do you think our nation was prepared for the COVID-19 pandemic? How about your Tribe? With all the lessons you learned during the COVID-19 pandemic, how would you prepare yourself, your family, and your community for future pandemics?
- 4) Now that we are moving to a post-pandemic world, what have we learned for future pandemics? What changes have we made to make us more prepared, and what changes still need to be made?
